

Friendship Forever...

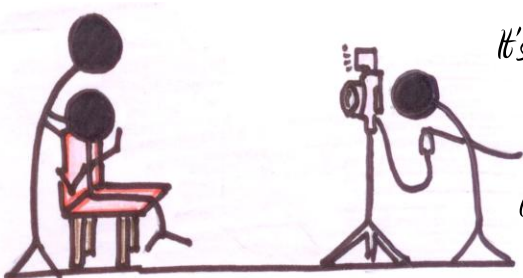

- K. P. Varma

A human is related to any other human through some relations like father, mother, brother, sister.

These relations are sometimes selfish and not according to one's liking,

They are just due to fate,

But the only unselfish relation in the world that a human creates by himself and the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous is a friend.

It's not just a relation. It's a promise that says, "I will be with you, whenever, wherever and forever!"

When riches take wing or reputation falls to pieces, a 'friend' is very steady in his love, as the sun in its journey through the heavens.

Always remember your friend, at least as a dried flower between the pages of your notebook. They might not bear any fragrance but they will always be enriched with sweet memories.

So give a thousand chances for your enemy to become a friend but give no chance for your friend to become an enemy.
